

11 Alice Street SEVEN HILLS NSW

3  1

Spotless and spacious inside and out is the first thing comes to mind when you see this property! The home is filled with plenty of old charm but is immaculate throughout as it has been freshly painted. The property features three great size bedrooms with brand new carpet - two of which are almost double size with the main bathroom located off the main bedroom. Also boasts a separate lounge area with new carpet and gas point, fireplace not included. A good size dining area with new vinyl flooring. The kitchen is neat and tidy, including a large walk in pantry and gas cooking. All rooms have newly furnished windows and vertical blinds. Backroom also features a polished timber floor. Ducted air conditioning is available throughout the home. External laundry with outside toilet, a shared driveway plus plenty of off street parking. This property is ideally situated as it is literally minutes' walk to Seven Hills train station, shops and schools.
