Finally the home you have been waiting for has arrived, one with style, space and the convenience you wish for. Situated in an elevated position with a north facing aspect on the quiet side of the street in the much sought after south Seven Hills neighbourhood, this 3 bedroom brick veneer home is within equal walking distance to both Metella Rd Primary and The Hills Sports High schools.

You will certainly appreciate the mixture of polished floorboards to living areas and plush carpet to bedrooms which all have built in robes. The air conditioned lounge and dining room provides all the comfort you can desire and adjoins to the fully renovated kitchen.

The bathroom is a delight with frameless glass shower screens as is the convenience of washing machine access upstairs and a huge laundry downstairs with second toilet plus the bonus of solar hot water system.

For those who work from home or need that additional
