Perfectly positioned in a popular and serene neighbourhood is only one of the many exciting features available with this immaculately maintained and presented, brick veneer home offering a relaxed retreat from today's busy lifestyle. Be impressed as you walk through the generous floorplan which features 3 bedrooms, 2 with built-in-robos, and main with ceiling fan, lounge with air-conditioning, modern kitchen with dishwasher and adjoining dining room, modern bathroom with separate toilet and a rumpus room enjoying district views to the rear. Surrounded by over 600sqm of land incorporating a double carport with security gates, garden shed and a handy under house storage space will be appreciated by all who inspect. The whisper quiet location yet only a short stroll to Metella Road Primary School, local shops, parks and transport options offers convenience and ensures this home will grab your attention upon your first inspection.
