A rare opportunity exists here to secure an affordable home in a peaceful street on Toongabbie's highly sought after east side, within walking distance to train station, schools, bus stops and local shops.

The sizeable floor plan provides generous living areas, a large gas equipped kitchen, sunroom and a laundry with second toilet while a separate study room with it's own private entrance could easily be used as a second living area, home office or kids retreat.

A wide fronted 556m2 block of land affords a large backyard with two storage sheds and side access to a lock up garage.

With a few cosmetic upgrades this home could easily be your dream home or alternatively you can investigate the
