Golden real estate opportunities such as this are a rarity these days.

Astute buyers seeking a prime location near the train station should look no further than this solid 1960's character home occupying a wide fronted 727m² land parcel, enjoying district views from its elevated north facing position.

In need of renovation but offering sizable proportions and charming features rarely seen such as plaster cornices, ornate fireplaces and high ceilings, the home offers a wealth of potential to renovate into a dream home or astute investors could investigate it's conversion into professional offices such as doctor, physio, accountant etc and capitalise on this central location.

Price : $ 725,000
Land Size : 727 sqm
